Re: U.S. v. Issac Concepcion Aquino, etal.
Docket No. 18 CR 640 (RA)

Dear Judge Abrams,

I write on behalf of my client to request that he permitted to surrender to the U.S. Marshalls prior to the present date of January 6, 2020 which Your Honor was gracious enough to set so that Mr. Robles could be home during the holiday season. Yesterday Mr. Robles learned that his girlfriend is pregnant. Hewould like to surrender Monday, November 11th, Tuesday November 12th or as soon thereafter as possible so that he could he home to look for a more permanent job than his current situation and start saving some money for the coming birth of his child.

I would also request that Your Honor order the removal of GPS prior to his surrender.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

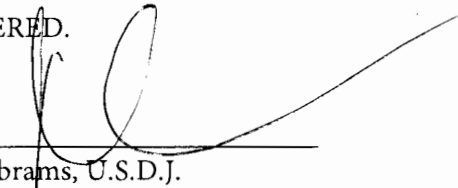

Lawrence Dubin

Lawrence Dubin, Esq.

LAD/cl

Application granted. Mr. Robles shall voluntarily surrender to the Office of the United States Marshals Service located at 500 Pearl Street, 4th floor, New York, New York, 10007.

SO ORDERED.

Ronnie Abrams, U.S.D.J.
